Privacy Notice for Edinburgh Gym Membership (Granton and Sighthill)

Edinburgh College is providing you with this information to comply with data protection law and to ensure that you are fully informed and we are transparent in how we collect and use your personal data.

Who is collecting the information?

Edinburgh College is the Data Controller. We have an appointed Data Protection Officer (DPO), Alice Wilson, who can be contacted by emailing:

DataProtection@edinburghcollege.ac.uk

Why are we collecting it and what are we doing with it (Purpose)?

The purpose of collecting this data is to process membership applications, inform relevant members of sport and fitness staff of medical conditions that may be affected by exercise and to support members with relevant exercise programming. On occasions we will use this data to contact members directly in order to notify of changes in operating hours, health and fitness specific activity programmes/events and promotions/offers relevant to membership renewal and/or upgrade.

What personal data do we collect?

- Name,
- Address,
- Email Address
- Contact number
- Emergency contact
- Current Medical/Health history information that is relevant to ensuring safe exercise participation,
- Your exercise preferences and exercise aims and objectives if you require an exercise programme.

How are we collecting this information? What is the source?

We collect this information directly from you by your completion of the online application which members will send by email to the relevant campus gym email address.

The lawful basis for the processing

The legal basis for processing your data is under GDPR Article 6(1)(b) the processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract.

In relation to marketing purposes (as detailed above and within the application form) the legal basis for processing is Article 6(1)(a) “the data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more specific purposes.” It is important to note that consent can be withdrawn at any time.

When your medical conditions are collected (and therefore involves processing health data which is classed as special category data), the legal basis for processing Article 9 (1)(b) “processing is necessary for the purposes of carrying out the obligations and exercising specific rights of the controller or of the data subject in the field of employment and social security and social protection law in so far as it is authorised by Union or Member State law or a collective agreement pursuant to Member State law providing for appropriate safeguards for the fundamental rights and the interests of the data subject”, processing this information is to comply with Health and Safety standards and Public Liability/Indemnity Insurance policies

Who we share the information with:

We do not share this information with any other organisation or body.

How long do we hold the personal data?

Data will be held until the termination of membership by either party. The membership records will be destroyed securely.

Individuals’ rights in relation to this processing

Under data protection law individuals have various rights. These are:

- The Right to be Informed (i.e. privacy notices)
- The Right of Access – to have access/copies of the personal data held
- The Right to Rectification – to correct inaccurate or incomplete personal data
- The Right of Erasure (commonly known as the Right to be Forgotten (RTBF)) – to destroy all personal data held for this purpose.
- The Right to Restrict Processing – this links with rectification and objection and means you can request the processing is restricted until the objection has been addresses

- The Right to Object – this is an absolute right with direct marketing and can apply with other instances. If you object to how your data is processed please email the data protection mailbox
- The Right to Data Portability – this means you can request your data in a machine readable format (like a .csv file) and you can request it is transferred to another organisation (for example another gym).
- The Right to know of any automated decision making including profiling is done with their data. – the College does not use automated processes for this purpose.

For the purposes of gym membership, all of the rights listed above apply except for the last one – automated decision making/profiling. To exercise any of your rights please email the data protection mailbox at
